"The true minister of Christ knows that the true value of a sermon must lie, not in its fashion and manner, but in the truth which it contains."

"The grandest discourse ever delivered is an ostentatious failure if the doctrine of the grace of God be absent from it."

"Sound teaching is the best protection from the heresies which ravage right and left among us."

- Charles Haddon Spurgeon (1834 - 1892)

"Two things are united, teaching and praying; God would have him whom He has set as a teacher in His church to be assiduous in prayer."

"A dog barks when his master is attacked. I would be a coward if I saw that God's truth is attacked and yet would remain silent."

"There is not one blade of grass, there is no color in this world that is not intended to make us rejoice."

"I consider looseness with words no less of a defect than looseness of the bowels."

- John Calvin (1509 - 1564)
